Quality Technology International hires Ryan Brenny

Elgin, IL -- Quality Technology International announces the appointment of Ryan Brenny as Regional Poultry Sales & Marketing Manager.

Brenny joins QTI from BioMatrix International, where he was a Poultry Specialist. Prior to that, he was Director of Production Operations for Sparboe Companies, Breeder/Hatchery Manager for Pilgrim's and multiple positions including Breeder Manager for GOLD'N PLUMP.

"Ryan brings to QTI wide knowledge of key poultry categories, each of which is important experience to apply to his duties," says Troy Lohrmann, President and CEO of Quality Technology International. "He brings support to the layer and broiler sides of our business with a combined 25 years of experience on both the sales and live production outlook."

Brenny earned a Business Administration and Management degree at the Minnesota School of Business, and also attending Central Lakes College.
